It is okay to be scared, but if you let that fear rule your life, you will always be unhappy. Everybody is like a magnet. Faith, atonement, and supernatural grace are the essential requisites of eternal happiness, and these have nothing to do with the mental or moral energies of our nature.

GeorgeBernardShawClicktotweet. They are daft and silly. To punish the temporary and finite crimes of a finite life with eternal fire, would be to relinquish every principle of distributive justice, and to act like an arbitrary and malevolent tyrant. Christian philosophers themselves have acceded to the axiom, that from nothing, nothing can be made;

if this be true, as it clearly is, the eternal duration of the earth, in some form or other, will follow as a necessary consequence. My mother is an inspiration. The unintelligible union of these three persons cannot destroy in any degree whatever, the infinite perfection ascribed to each; it therefore remains true, that the Christian world really worship three infinite Gods, or infinite persons, which is exactly the same thing.
