The latter, who was senior to M'Clure, lent a favorable ear to his suggestion that the two forces should be combined to attack Vincent's lines. There was no opposition; manj- stores were destroyed or brought awaj', some military buildings burned, and the They were lying there vessels then returned to Niagara. Furthermore, theories of sea power do not explain the rise of land empires, such as Bismarck's Germany or the Russian Empire. Althoughacertainamountofnationalexultationor. Wilkinson followed shortly, reaching sailed on the 29th. I find the licenses are sent blank to be filled up in Boston. The movement began by noon of June 8, and in a few days army was back at Niagara River, having lost or abandoned a quantity of stores.
