The portrait of blackness that Hayqutan presents is uncomplicated and purely laudatory, and is fit to the conditions of his time and place in which RABI'A OF BASRA: SELECTED POEMS discursive mode was sorely needed, not unlike certain threads of Afrocentrism that still have play today. For an account of performance by and for musicians in the early 8th century, see this report of a fun night in Medina from the Book of Songs where the second song samples three non-consecutive verses from a verse poem. The goal of Sufi mystical asceticism and celibacy of this nature is not only to enter into a loving relationship with God, but to ultimately access God in such a way that the self is annihilated, because God is fundamental unity but the untrained and closed mind cannot grasp .

Dubois published a book titled The Negro, which attempted a comprehensive history of the Negro. However, this wealth raises complicated questions about the aesthetics of success vs.

She was born over a thousand years ago, in the city of Basra, in Iraq. Only Union with the Friend can cure it.
