By a residence of several years at Ferozepore, I had made myself well acquainted with the cultivation of a garden in the North-West Provinces when, on removal to Howrah, by the practical knowledge Iacquired in my own garden, as well as by observation of what was done in Manual of Gardening I had the means of visiting, I became thorough ly conversant with the practice of gardening as applicable Manual of Gardening Bengal. Hope you will like it and give your comments and suggestions. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.
